The Siamese Twins.

A little more than two years ago the court of appeals declared that the Louisville election of 1905 was void and that it was the duty of the governor to fill by appointment the offices made vacant by the decision of the court.

On June 15, 1907, after the decision had been handed down and before the appointments were made, the editor of the Courier-Journal published an article from the Louisville Herald in which it was charged that Gov. Beckham had made a deal with John Whallen and others to name Whallen's friends for mayor and other offices. The Herald article indicated that the governor would appoint such men as would be acceptable to Mr. Whallen. The editor of the Courier-Journal proceeded in the same paper to write one of his heaviest and fiercest editorials denouncing such an alleged alliance. While pretending to disbelieve the absurd report he would, nevertheless, have his readers believe that there was much truth in it. We shall quote parts of his editorial to show with what tremendous indignation he, only two years ago, could hear of any democrat making an alliance with Mr. Whallen. He says: "We reproduce elsewhere in this issue of the Courier-Journal a most serious melange from the columns of our local republican contemporary, the Louisville Herald. There are some persons who might call this a 'pipe dream.' It is certainly fantastic. That a newspaper, however absurd its pretensions to virtue, should set up for tin divinity, and to increase the illusion, should supplement its post by the addition of two typical thieves, would be the rather laughable than terrible; but that the democratic governor of Kentucky, seeking an organ, should throw himself into the embrace of such a combine, is preposterous."

From the staggering grammar and reeling rhetoric of the above conglomeration of words and ideas, it is difficult to decide whether the "great editor" was trying to criticise the Herald, annihilate the governor or demolish the English language. In its mauldin commixture, however, a keen eye can detect that he was trying to say that the governor had reached or would reach the depths of sin and depravity if he even let Mr. Whallen speak to him about those appointments.

He then proceeded to show, as is his inveterate custom, that he and the Courier-Journal had always been right and had never made mistakes. He proves at length to his own satisfaction that he alone of all men possessed a monopoly of virtue, political purity and infallibility. He closes this fulmination with the following elegant and polite language:

"Let us dismiss the horrible horoscope of our lively young contemporary (the Herald) as either a vagary or youth or mere horseplay in advance of a party convention.

"No doubt some such conceit has penetrated the hot and hazy atmosphere of the vaudeville theatre of our local politics, perhaps has percolated through the precincts of disreputable and mercenary political adventure—doubtless the professional traffickers in contraband goods have given it out to enhance the value of the stolen wares—but the governor of any State, and least of all the governor of Kentucky, meditating an act of suicide should publicly select a house of ill-fame in order that he might die in the arms of prostitution, is simply inconceivable."

This illustrates what the sinless editor of the Courier-Journal thought of Mr. Whallen only two years ago, and even much later, for their affectionate reconciliation only occurred a few months ago. It is an evidence of his characteristic inconsistency, his reckless abuse and utterly irresponsible and immoral nature. He is to-day the close ally and journalistic advocate of this same Mr. Whallen. His paper enthusiastically recognizes Mr. Whallen as the leader of the Democratic party in Louisville, and is seeking to aid him in the extension of his leadership over the State. Almost daily his paper contains panegyrics upon Mr. Whallen and relates the ovations which he receives in visiting various cities of the State. What bargains and sales, what miserable political deals or manipulations brought about this strange coalition, we are not prepared to say. The public is not usually taken into confidence in such transactions. But it goes to show that there is some magic process by which scurrilous abuse from this pure-minded editor one day may be changed into fulsome praise the next day.—Frankfort Journal.

MATRIMONIAL.

L. C. McIntosh, of Danville, and Miss Madge King, of Kings Mountain, were married last week.

Harry Lanier, of Mill Springs, and Miss Janette McKechnie, of Bronston, were married last week.

George Hinds, widower of 64, and Mrs. E. B. Joslin, 62, were made one at the former's home Saturday.

The wedding dress of Lillian Nordics, who was married to George W. Young, the New York banker, is described as one of the most beautiful ever seen. It is of priceless duchesse lace over white chiffon. She will not wear a hat or veil. Her only ornament will be a string of pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Rice, 523 Harrison street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Letta, to Mr. James William Jones of Temple, Tex., the wedding to take place on Wednesday night, Sept. 1, at the First Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Rice, who is of the younger set, is a girl of wonderfully sweet personality and distinctively a Southern type. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rice. Mr. Jones is a clothing merchant who lives in Temple, Tex., where the Rice family formerly lived, and although he and his fiance have been friends for more than two years their engagement dates back only to last Christmas. A number of Topeka girls will attend Miss Rice as bridesmaids. Her sister, Miss Anna Burr Rice, will be maid of honor and Mrs. J. J. Booker, of Temple, Texas, who is Mrs. Rice's sister, will be the matron of honor. Rev. D. H. Rice, of Albia, Ia., Miss Rice's grandfather, will perform the ceremony. Mr. Jones will be attended by Mr. Charles Bohon, of Lebanon, Ky., as best man. The wedding will be a large affair and will be of especial significance because of the prominence of the Rice family. Mr. Rice is general storekeeper for the Santa Fe and has lived in Topeka for seven years.—Topeka, Kansas, Daily Capital. Mr. Jones is well and favorably known in this country, having lived at Hustonville for several years.

Resolutions of Respect.

On the 22nd of June our community was made sad by the death of Mrs. Lucie Bronston Best. "Granny," as she was lovingly called, was a regular attendant at church and Sunday school until the past few years. Being of a bright and genial nature she won many friends and up until the end she was cheerful and thoughtful of those around.

Resolved. By her death the church has lost a faithful member, the family a loving mother and our society a staunch supporter and loyal member. To the family we extend our deepest sympathy.

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy sent to the INTERIOR JOURNAL for publication.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY, MORELAND.

Washington's Plague Spots lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Biters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. They cure Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Blood Troubles and will prevent Typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

The French court has ordered the dissolution of the trades union which the postal, telegraph and telephone employees formed during the strike in Paris last May, holding under the law of 1884 as its authority that workmen's unions do not apply to State employees.

All persons are recommended to take Foley's Kidney Remedy for backache, rheumatism and Kidney and bladder trouble. It will quickly correct urinary irregularities, which, if neglected, may develop into a serious illness. It will restore health and strength. Sold by New Stanford Drug Co.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

Campbellsville is to have a $30,000 hotel.

Gov. Wilson has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of Dr. W. L. Nuttail.

Night riders destroyed the saw mill of Obe Clifton in Cheatham county, Tenn.

Flem Powell, a merchant at Glasgow, was killed by a current from an arc light wire.

Peter Crosby, a well-known citizen, was killed in a fall through an elevator shaft at Ashland.

John T. Hayes, an insurance agent, was run over and killed by an L. & N. train at Lexington.

Fire starting from an explosion of gasoline on the fourth floor of a brick building in St. Paul resulted in the death of nine persons.

Robert Poynter, of Adair, killed a rattle snake which was 47 inches long and which had nine rattles.

James White, a Negro, accused of attempted assault on a little girl at Middlesboro, was taken to Pineville for safe keeping.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young was elected superintendent of the Chicago school system. She is the first woman to hold the office.

William McCracken is under arrest at London charged with defrauding insurance companies of $30,000 while living in Oklahoma.

The Senate ratified an arbitration convention between the United States and Paraguay, which was signed on March 13 last.

In a head-on collision at Coldwell, Washington, two electric passenger trains were wrecked. Ten were killed and 60 injured.

The city clerk of Cincinnati announces that during the past year there was one divorce granted for every seven marriages celebrated.

As a result of a switch engine dash-ing into a heavily-loaded suburban street car in Memphis, Tenn., one person was killed and ten injured.

Lightning struck the kitchen of a suburban dwelling at Memphis, instantly killing two children, fatally injuring a third child and seriously injuring the latter's mother.

President Taft is said to be highly pleased with the conference report on the tariff bill. Many of the Western Senators who voted for it are said to have done so with bad grace.

County Judge James Polsgrove, of Franklin county, has requested Gov. Wilson to offer reward for the arrest of Dr. W. H. Nuttall, former superintendent of the Institute for the Feeble Minded.

Mrs. Hannah Mullarkey, wife of John I. Mullarkey, a prominent railroad man, and Edward B. Axline committed suicide in the Mullarkey home in Bellevue. The woman swallowed carbolic acid and the man shot himself.

Earth shocks of terrific force in the central part of Mexico destroyed an immense amount of property, and it is feared resulted in a heavy loss of life. So far as ascertained, 14 persons were killed and many injured.

Forty miners were overcome by gas in the Central Coal and Coke Co.'s mine, No. 31, at Pittsburgh, Kas. All but 15 were quickly placed out of danger. Twelve were seriously and three perhaps fatally hurt. Nearly all are foreigners.

Owen Rowley probably laughed himself to death in Chicago. His cousin, Edward Rowley, told a funny story while they were sitting on an iron railing and Owen's mirth shook him off to the basement 15 feet below. His spine was broken and he will probably die.

'Twas A Glorious Victory.

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctors did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks, I feel like a new man, and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, Coughs and Colds, Hemorrhages, Hay Fever, La-Grippe, Asthma or any Bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

The French court has ordered the dissolution of the trades union which the postal, telegraph and telephone employees formed during the strike in Paris last May, holding under the law of 1884 as its authority that workmen's unions do not apply to State employees.

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON

We have not been honored with a copy of the Harrodsburg Republican, which is to set the political woods afire, but we notice in an exchange that the editor addresses an article on the State finances to this paper and others, in which he makes many reckless statements to bolster up a bad case of mismanagement and throws several fits in assumed indignation, breathing threatenings and slaughter the while. The casus belli was the statement that the republicans had squandered the large amount they found in the treasury, causing a suspension of payments and a large deficit. As Editor Beckham, who is so competent to do so, is answering the new scribe so convincingly, we refrain from doubling on him, even if he does dare any man or set of men to answer him. The former governor graciously admits that Brer Bell is not maliciously mendacious, but densely ignorant, and for the present we will let it go at that.

BULLY for Senator Stone, of Missouri! He has furnished further evidence that the trodden on worm will turn. A Pullman car waiter got too gay and the Senator from the "show me State" slapped his jaws. He was arrested and at his trial in Baltimore the court not only released him but praised him for administering the castigation, while the crowd, many of whom had been victims of the arrogant employees of the Pullman Car Company, gave three lusty cheers. Sufferers everywhere will rejoice that retribution has come to one at least of the pompous creatures whose missions in life seem to be to make the traveler feel how insignificant he is and at the same time separate him from as much cash as possible.

As a rule we have no patience with independent tickets, but there are times when they seem excusable. The democrats of Louisville nominated a good ticket but handicapped it by putting one John H. Whallen, boss of the Buckingham and of many low dives, according to the Courier Journal of the not very remote past, and who has not supported a democratic ticket for 13 years, as leader and spokesman. This is enough to disgust decent people and make them want to vote for a ticket not under such domination. It is a state of affairs deeply to be regretted, as it seems that the only result of the Owen Tyler ticket will be the election of the republican layout.

W. P. KENT, whom the republicans have nominated for governor of Virginia, is an uncle by marriage of Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham. Mrs. Beckham's mother-in-law is the mother of a governor and daughter of a governor, but the younger Mrs. Beckham, while the wife of a governor, will never be the neice of one if this is the only dependence. They don't elect republican governors in the Old Dominion. Kent can't catch on there.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN finds that Nebraska isn't big enough to hold him. He will move to Texas. Thus saith the Louisville Times, which in this instance is behind the times. Mr. Bryan denies that he ever said he will move to Texas as to live. Only his enemies charge that any State is too small for him. The Times should imitate the State Journal, which makes the statement on one page and corrects it on the other.

SCIENTISTS have at last discovered that candy, properly made, is a substantial health food. This will be good news to young America. Mothers who have denied their children the sweet enjoyment, under the impression that it was not good for them, should make a note of this. We are glad that so many of the old delusions are giving way to the researches of scientists.

SATISFIED that they are powerless to stem the tariff's high tide, the democratic Senators can be found almost any place than Washington. Bob Taylor, Tilman and others are off lecturing. Bailey is seeing after his horse farm at Lexington, and so on. As Senator Bailey says, the republican majority made the revision upwards and they must stand responsible for it.

A GOVERNMENT steamer arriving from the Philippines the other day, brought home the living and dead members of the Tenth Cavalry, which had been stationed on the islands. The roster included 25 officers, 634 men and the dead bodies of 61 more. Benevolent assimilation is making mighty slow progress and taking an awful toll of lives and money.

THE Georgia Legislator who slung the lie around so promiscuously at the preachers who questioned his sincerity as a temperance man, was doubtless aided in his mock bravery by the knowledge that legislative speeches are privileged and preachers are as a rule non-combatants.

SENATOR ALDRICH turned down a flattering offer to lecture on a Chautauqua circuit. He is willing, doubtless, to let others deliver lectures. His business is to deliver the goods.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL takes pleasure in denouncing as a wicked and malicious lie, the statement that Col. W. B. Haldeman resigned as the head of the First Regiment because he could not stand the examination. The gallant colonel learned the military art in real war as a Confederate soldier and knows more about it than all the present day tin soldiers put together. He not only knows the part but looks the part of the typical magnificent soldier. He hades with calumniators. They are a dog-oned onery bunch.

THE House passed the Conference Committee's report on the tariff bill 195 to 183; 20 republicans voting against it and two democrats for it. It is stated that the republicans "shieled with d. light" when the vote was announced, even at so slender a majority. They laugh best who laugh last, it is said, and when the consumer discovers how completely he has been flimflammed in favor of the interests it will be the democrats' time to laugh. Their chances for carrying the next House were never better.

THAW wrote Evelyn that if she would marry him he would settle down, own Pittsburgh and become a Senator. This is taken as evidence of insanity, but it should not be. Thaw knew that under the present system United States Senatorships go to the highest bidder and he had the price. And come to think of it, he would average pretty well up to the men who have for some time held the office from Pennsylvania.

CALEB POWERS went way up to Elkhart, Ind., to announce his candidacy for Congress in the 11th district. We suspect, however, the Hoosiers will take more interest in his race than us Kentuckians who know the manner of man he is.

A MAN who stole his ride to the St. Louis exposition has just made restitution. As it has been five or six years since the great show the still small voice had a hard time making the fellow hear.

THE Lexington Gazette has a new head. That's all right, it needed one, but the impression seems to prevail that the editor needs a new head more than the paper.

POLITICAL.

A bill was introduced in the Georgia House providing for an income tax. The Alexander bill doubling the State tax on near beer passed the Georgia House.

The Senate voted an appropriation for automobiles for the use of the Vice President and the Speaker of the House.

By a vote of 195 to 183 the House adopted the conference report on the tariff bill. Twenty Republicans voted against the measure and two Democrats for it.

President Taft sent to the Senate the nomination of B. Frank Harris, of New York, to be Collector of Customs at Saginaw Harbor, N. Y.

Gen. Henry C. Worthington, formerly member of the California Legislature, delegate in Congress from Nevada, diplomat and jurist, died at the Garfield Hospital at Washington.

Kentucky republicans in Washington understand that Timothy Fields, of Ashland, has been decided upon to succeed Sam J. Roberts as collector of internal revenue for the Lexington district.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Quarterly meeting at the Methodist church was postponed Sunday until Sept. 4.

Rev. J. J. Dickey writes as follows: The Alceton Camp Meeting will begin Aug. 6th with prospects for a great meeting, more ministers are expected than usual, the evangelists who will conduct the services have been very successful and great results are hoped for.

Every seat in the Presbyterian church was filled Sunday night when Rev. J. L. Yandel preached his farewell sermon. His remarks before the sermon were very appropriate and touching and the sermon was good. Our people give up this splendid Christian gentleman with sincere regret and wish for him all the good things that can come to one so deserving of them.

The Crime Of Idleness.

Idleness means trouble for any one. Its the same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25¢ at Penny's Drug Store.

Chairman Payne, of the Ways and Means Committee, presented to the House Committee an analysis of the tariff bill as prepared in the majority conference. Mr. Payne contends that the bill is tariff revision downward and that the rates on the necessities of life have been reduced.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—is made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. This tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—eases blood pressure away from pain centers. It affects pain centers amazingly delightfully, gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If you have a toothache, it's blood pressure. If you are sleepless, it's nervousness, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 30 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the pain evenly.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does, it's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain always is. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

LOCALS.

ATTEND the sale of the O. J. Crow farm at Turnersville to-morrow, Wednesday.

LANCASTER.—Dr. W. N. Craig, of Stanford, oculist and optician, will be at the Kengarlan Hotel, Lancaster, on Tuesday next, Aug. 3. Those who need glasses should have their eyes examined.

CLOTHES French cleaned. Cook & Farmer.

NOVELTIES in neckwear. Cummins & Warren.

DOESN'T that bath-room in Warner's window remind you that you need one?

THE Court of Appeals will take up the Baughman and McCarty contest Oct. 6.

BUY a season ticket to the Chautauqua, which begins here Thursday, from Miss Minnie Sine.

THE splendid O. J. Crow farm will be sold at auction next Friday, Aug. 4th. See "ad" this issue.

LOST.—A pocket medicine case between my residence and Robert Myers'. M. Lee Pipes, Moreland.

OUR thanks are due and are hereby tendered Squire James McKechnie for a large sack of delightful apples.

THE C. W. B. M. will meet in the lecture room of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon at the usual hour. Apply to E. C. Walton.

SAFELY CIGARS are for gentlemen of good taste. The Power Grocery Co., Paris, Ky., Wholesale Distributors.

EVENTUALLY you will use either Rex or Economy coal from Denham's yards. Why not begin now and save the difference?

FOR RENT.—Suite of rooms in Odd Fellows' building just vacated by Hon. J. N. Saunders. Also store-room in that building. Ed Wilkinson.

BARN BURNED.—Wilson Alexander, who lives on Hawkins' Branch, lost his stock barn by fire. The loss is $1,200 or more with $500 insurance.

If you want to buy a good farm you should attend the sale of the O. J. Crow place near Turnersville Wednesday next, Aug. 4. You might get a bargain.

MONEY.—Mr. W. M. Bright, trustee of the jury fund, informs us that he has the money for those jurors who served at the May term of the Lincoln circuit court.

FOR SALE.—A range and cooking utensils, an extra sized table, one oak bed, one walnut bureau, one Brussels carpet, two mattings, two kitchen tables, chairs, etc. Apply to Miss Belle Denny.

THE cloudburst of Saturday night did a great deal of damage in many portions of the county, the Turnersville section having suffered most. Tobacco and corn were washed away, water gates were lost and much other damage was done.

PROF. E. W. GIBSON has been elected to fill the position as High School teacher in the Stanford Graded and High School. He graduated with first honors in 1903 at Transylvania University. He has been teaching since in the public and private schools of this State. He is a young man of finished education and a capable teacher, as his many splendid testimonials bear witness.

FAULKNER KENNEDY TO GET A PARDON.—Gov. Wilson has ordered that at the end of a three-years' term in the penitentiary Faulkner Kennedy, of this county, be released, "if he does not commit any other offense." The Governor does not make the pardon absolute, however, but says that "It should be void if at any time before the expiration of his original sentence he shall violate any penal law." Mr. Kennedy was given 21 years for participation in the killing of James Shupe in the East End. Mr. Kennedy has served about 18 years of his sentence.

A FRIEND of the gentleman has this to say about him in the Danville Advocate: "The Hon. Harvey Helm, our representative in Congress, has by his efficient and capable services again laid our town and county under obligations in the matter of the government building, by securing a change in its location whereby the pavement on Fourth street will be widened to correspond with the Main street sidewalk. In this connection it is well to recall to mind that the $30,000 additional appropriation for this building was secured by Mr. Helm. He not only got the pavement widened but the building set back so there will be a ten-foot grass plot."

ATTEND the sale of the O. J. Crow farm at Turnersville to-morrow, Wednesday.

LANCASTER.—Dr. W. N. Craig, of

PRICES on Ladies' Oxfords reduced. See our windows. Cummins & Warren.

WANTED to have a good well bored on my place. Apply to Dr. M. Lee Pipes, Moreland.

CITY TAXES.—Your city taxes for 1909 are due. Please call and settle. B. D. Carter, collector.

TAXES.—The tax books for 1909 are now ready. Come in and get your receipt. T. J. Hill, sheriff.

JAMES BLISS, formerly of Stanford, died in the asylum at Lexington Friday. He was a Confederate soldier and a clever man.

IF you want any lettering done or monuments cleaned see Harry Jacobs while he is here this week or leave word with J. C. McClary.

BANK STOCK.—A number of shares in the Hustonville National Bank. If not sold before will be sold at public auction next Monday, county court day. Apply to E. C. Walton.

THE Lincoln county democratic committee met Saturday afternoon and named the following five gentlemen from which the State Board of Election Commissioners will select one for election commissioner of this county: S. T. Harris, H. Rowan Saufley, J. M. Alverson, S. J. Embry, Jr., Dock Drye.

THE Chautauqua will not begin until Thursday afternoon, the management having changed the date from to-day until that time. The big tent will be stretched on the lot back of the old Daugherty shop on West Main street.

Those who have attended the sessions of this chautauqua gathering speak of it in glowing terms.

HON. W. P. WALTON, of Lexington, with his two sons and Mr. G. F. Vaughan, of Richmond, Va., were callers at the Herald office Friday. They were en route from Stanford to Lexington in an automobile. Mr. Walton is now engaged in the brokerage business in Lexington and is by far too good a newspaper man to be out of the harness, but it seems to agree with him as he pulls the beam now at over 200.—Harrodsburg Herald.

$650 PIANO.—A good business proposition. I will sell Myrtle's Grand Empress Piano Style T. for $50 cash, and $10 per month for 25 months with 5 per cent. interest, to any one who will make a negotiable note. This is a very handsome piano. If not equal to any $600 Steinway, or any $600 Knabe; then you can have this beautiful piano for nothing. I have bought three pianos from three firms, seven church organs from five different firms, I believe the Williams Organ and Piano Company of Chicago, the most reliable firm in America. Come to the Methodist parsonage and see, and try the piano. T. W. Barker.

At the Lancaster fair Friday Lincoln county stockmen took the lion's share of the awards. Harris & Woods won the championship four-in-hand mule team, defeating mules that had won at the Kentucky and Indiana State Fairs last year. They also won first in the championship on mule colts. W. O. Walker on Thursday won first in the harness ring and three-year-old saddle ring with his great stallion, Carroll Preston. Friday he was second in the sweepstakes saddle ring. Carroll Duderar placed first in the harness ring with his good two year-old Sallie Brook by Ashland Brook. E. P. Woods & Son took the honors on the best mule under one year and were third in the stake.

CHARLES A. WILHOLME, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 29th day of July, 1909. My commission expires Jan. 22, 1910. G. B. PRUITT, N. P.

M. Lee Pipes, T. A. King and Geo. W. Hunn, Directors.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Atlantic City on Aug. 5 at $17.75.

THE Q. & C. hasn't moved everything from Somerset to Danville. The payroll at the former place last month exceeded $4,000.

THE wife of Capt. J. A. Doty, of Lancaster, is dead at an advanced age. She is survived by her husband and several grown children.

HARRY JACOBS, the McKinney monument man, is placing handsome monuments over the graves of Mr. T. M. Goodnight and Mrs. Mary E. Wharton in Buffalo cemetery.

THE petitions gotten up by the anti-saloon people for an election on the whisky question were to have been filed with the county judge yesterday afternoon. The election will be held about Oct. 1.

LIGHTNING struck one of the chimneys of Dr. W. N. Craig's brick residence on Main street Saturday night and did considerable damage to it. Mrs. Eliza Blain, who has rooms in the residence, felt to a considerable extent the shock.

THE Chautauqua will not begin until Thursday afternoon, the management having changed the date from to-day until that time. The big tent will be stretched on the lot back of the old Daugherty shop on West Main street.

Those who have attended the sessions of this chautauqua gathering speak of it in glowing terms.

BADLY HURT.—Mrs. Josie Raney, of New Arlington, Md., was badly hurt at the home of Mr. C. M. Jones, near Maywood, yesterday morning. She was standing in a runabout when the horse frightened and she was thrown out with terrific force. We could not learn the full extent of her injuries, but they are very serious.

THE Cumberland Valley Land Co. has sold to the Black Mountain Corporation 6,630 acres of coal and timber land in Harlan county, for about $150,000. The company has let about 3,500 acres of its best land. The money will be divided among the stockholders, many of whom live here, at an early date. Mr. J. S. Hocker, secretary of the big concern, went to Big Stone Gap yesterday to make the transfer.
